UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

6

WILLIAM J. CUNDITT,

7 Petitioner,

8 vs.

3:11-cv-00397-ECR-RAM

9 ORDER

11 HIGH DESERT STATE PRISON, et al.

12 Respondents.

13

14 This closed prisoner civil rights action comes before the Court following upon a post-
15 judgment motion (#17) to reduce or correct sentence and sundry other notices and papers
16 filed by plaintiff.

17 This matter is closed. The Ninth Circuit has dismissed plaintiff's appeal from the order
18 and judgment of dismissal. Review of the United States Supreme Court's online docket
19 reflects that there are no proceedings regarding this matter in that court.

20 The Court previously struck a class action complaint filed by plaintiff well after entry of 21 judgment as improperly filed in this matter. The motion to reduce or correct sentence similarly 22 has been filed improperly in this matter. The Court notes in this regard that it directed the 23 Clerk to file habeas-related pleadings submitted with the original complaint as a separate
24 habeas action when it dismissed the original complaint. Plaintiff thus clearly is on notice that 25 the filing of such pleadings in this matter is improper.

26 The notices and papers filed range from the clearly frivolous and vexatious to the 27 nonsensical. The Court must control its docket, including vexatious and frivolous litigation

1 activities that improperly tie up limited resources. The Court therefore will direct the Clerk to
2 strike the motion to reduce or correct sentence and further to accept no further filings in this
3 matter other than a notice of appeal from this order.

4 IT THEREFORE IS ORDERED that the motion (#17) to reduce or correct sentence is
5 STRICKEN.

6 IT FURTHER IS ORDERED that the Clerk of Court shall accept no further filings in this
7 matter other than a notice of appeal from this order. The Clerk shall prominently reflect on 8 the docket sheet -- by such use of case flags and bold emphasis in the docket entry as is
9 necessary – that no further filings shall be accepted in this matter except a notice of appeal
10 from this order.

11 This action has been, and remains, closed.

12 DATED: January 6, 2012.
